Under the Children’s Privacy Protection Act (“COPPA”), we must provide you wit direct notice before collecting “personal information” from your child. Effective July 1, 2013, the Federal Trade Commission updated COPPS to reflect changes in technology, and now considers a photograph, video or audio file contains a child’s image or voice to be a child’s “personal information.” For more information about COPPA, please visit www.coppa.org. By signing this Release with Brasuell Productions, you are hereby informed that your child will be featured in still photography, video, and/or audio projects that may contain your child’s image voice, and/or name.
